

International Spy Museum Store Lifts the Veil on Unique Gift Giving
Washington, DC's Spy Museum store uncovers "Gifts to Spy For"

Washington, DC – Espionage buffs, the impossible-to-shop-for, and even those-who-have-everything can now find the right tools of the trade at the International Spy Museum Store. Whether concealed as a holiday present or simply disguised as an ordinary gift – the store’s hard-to-find and unique products provide just the right blend of imagination and style to tempt the most discriminating tastes.

This one-stop-shop for all things spy-related, from toys to books to tradecraft, is a destination in itself with 5,000 square feet devoted to a diverse selection of merchandise that mirrors the International Spy Museum’s presentation of espionage tradecraft and history, including popular interpretations of that profession. Visitors to the store will find hundreds of books and DVDs; a wide range of spy-related kits and toys including an extensive offering of Wild Planet’s™ Spy Gear equipment; spy attire including distinctive t-shirts, hoodies and jackets; pop culture merchandise; spy craft items; exhibit-related products; strategy games; spy collectibles; spy logo and souvenir items and much more.

The International Spy Museum Store is located at the corner of 8th and F Streets, NW in Washington, D.C.’s historic Penn Quarter and can be accessed directly from 8th Street. The Museum Store is within one-half block of the Gallery Place/Chinatown Metrorail station serviced by the red, yellow and green lines. Open daily, except for Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day, and New Year’s Day, the Museum Store follows the operating hours of the International Spy Museum. For more information, call 202.EYE.SPYU (202.393.7798) or visit spymuseum.org. Shop online at spymuseumstore.org

Product highlights include:*

SPY BUCKS Gift Cards - available in $5 increments beginning at $10
Ideal for the spy fan who has everything. The International Spy Museum Gift Cards may be used towards the purchase of Admission, Membership, and Museum Store purchases. Just imagine...an entire day at the Spy Museum!

Terrorist Teapot - $36.00
Take a closer look – you can’t trust what’s hidden. The Terrorist Teapot is not so traditional, disguised under a black tea cozy. This little guy puts the tea in “terror!”

THE KEY
SERIES
RE
P

NightScope Vision Goggles - $90.00

No spy likes to be left in the dark and with this great gadget; you can find your way in the world of shadows. Like those worn by the military and Special Ops, these goggles use infrared LEDs to shine a wide beam of light – up to 50 feet away! The light, invisible to the naked eye, displays a monochrome image through the single-eye viewfinder. Conduct after-dark surveillance, view nocturnal wildlife, or just enjoy the neighborhood at night. A high-quality, high-tech spy tool without the high price tag. Not only for kids, a great gift for adults too.

Operation Spy Toys - $6.00-$15.00

Exclusive Operation Spy Toys available only from the International Spy Museum, including night scope, spy shredder, listening scope, alarm set and rearview glasses, all guaranteed to make your spy mission a success!

Shocking Liar-Electric Shock Lie Detector - $19.95

They say the truth hurts, but with this lie detector, it's fibbing that causes pain. Strap your suspect's hand onto the handplate and ask a few control questions so the built-in computer can analyze the responses. They may get away with a few white lies at first, but if they lie once your interrogation is fully underway, the results can be truly shocking. Literally! There are two shock levels – high and low – plus light and sound effects.

12 in One Transformer Key Chain - $20.00

Spies must be prepared for whatever their mission calls for, but they must be inconspicuous. It won't do to enter enemy headquarters swinging a big old toolbox. You need this "deceptive dozen" key chain! Our tricky little tool conceals six swing-out, full-size screwdrivers (0, 1, and 2 flat; 0, 1, and 2 Philips) – enough to handle any job, a bright 2-LED flashlight to see in the dark, a 2-LED work light, two rulers (millimeter and inch), a straight edge, and mounting ring...all on a quick-release key chain.

Book Safe - $23

This handy book safe is a real hard cover book with a hollowed out center for storing your valuables. Simply tuck it away on a bookshelf and no one will know the difference. These hidden safes come in a variety of titles, from Terry Goodkind to Liz Smith to Lily Brett.

Spy Video ATV 360 - $130.00

Now you can scope out enemy territory from the safety of your own headquarters and hear if anybody is coming...from up to 75 feet away! This superspy remote-controlled ATV wirelessly transmits real-time video and sound – sending images to a private LCD lens mounted to a pair of lightweight frames and audio to your earbud. Push a button on the remote for full-circle spin control and a 360-degree view of the area. The ATV's tank-track system allows it to traverse treacherous off-road surfaces and climb over obstacles like books, backpacks, and piles of clothes. The ultimate surveillance vehicle for all your spy missions!

Daring Disguises 101 Kit - $12.95

Discover the spy inside you with the cool disguise tools in this kit: glasses, fake mustache, mustache comb, grease pen, mirror with Spy Museum logo, and cover story credentials. You also get a manual chock full of tips, techniques, and secret missions to perform. Slip in and out of sticky situations by hiding your true identity – you'll even fool your friends and family!

SecurePack Backpack - $85.00

When you're maneuvering through a maze of airports and streets on your way to the dead drop, who's got your back? The SecurePack guards your gear with an exclusive security system that prevents access to its interior while it's being worn. Padded computer compartment holds a laptop (up to 17" screen). Roomy interior has pockets for your iPod®, PDA, CDs, top-secret files, and more. Exterior pocket holds your MP3 or CD player and has a theft-resistant, pass-through port for headphone cable. Easy-access cell phone pocket on strap and two removable accessory pockets. Aerodynamic shape for cyclists and ventilated back panel for comfort.

The Collection: Music to Spy By - $29.95

This 2-CD set is sure to end up a favorite in your safehouse! Featuring 36 tracks across two CD's – Music to Spy By and More Music to Spy By – everyone's sure to have a favorite spy theme. The collection includes secret selections such as Secret Agent Man, Agent Double-O Soul, I Spy and Rear Window. The collection wouldn't be complete without several favorite movie selections, including the themes from Pink Panther, Thunderball, From Russia With Love, and The FBI Story. You won't find these together anywhere else than the International Spy Museum.

Beware of Female Spies - $3.95 - $54.00

“Women are being employed by the enemy to secure information...” A common workplace sign from the WWII era, this warning to “beware of inquisitive women as well as prying men” can be found today on Spy Museum exclusive items – from apparel to mugs to accessories. Display this common-sense warning around your own “safehouse” and remember, “Silence is safety”.

Exclusive Spy vs. Spy™ Collection - $8.00 - $24.95

Since 1961 MAD™ magazine spies have been doing battle over 500 times. Will they give up? We hope not! We are happy to honor this battling duo on bobble head dolls, mugs, tees and caps exclusive to the International Spy Museum.

KGB Flask - $24

Only decorated officials ever got one of these during the heyday of the Cold War! Made of stainless steel, this flask replica has an enamel emblem bearing the official KGB sword and shield crest, along with the USSR hammer and sickle. Screw-top cap depicts Lenin’s profile in gold. Good for holding “a little something” to share or stopping bullets. (Ok, maybe not that last part...)

Deny Everything Apparel - $11.95 - $35.00

Proclaim your intent to “Deny Everything” with our line of apparel featuring this bold statement. From caps to sweatshirts to t-shirts, let those around you know that you are, of course, blameless. After all, a good spy doesn’t let on that they know what they know...

International Spy Museum Invisible Playing Cards - $6.00

You’ll never play cards the same way again after using this stylish deck of cards. Though you can see through them, your opponent will never know what you have in your hand, as the numbers and suites can only be seen on one side. Comes with its own protective case, so you can be the life of the party anywhere!

Invisible Ink Spy Pen & UV Light - $9.95

Now you see, now you don’t. Your adversaries can’t break your code when the writing is invisible. Communicate without a trace- that is until your agent utilizes this slick pen UV light and sees the message written in invisible ink suddenly illuminated.

Spy File Trivia Deck - $9.95

You think you're an espionage expert? Well, then...who were the Cambridge Five? What is John LeCarre's real name? Know any good recipes for invisible ink? Test your spy mettle with our brain-teasing card pack, chock full of questions and answers about spy lore and history. These fascinating cards are also filled with images of rare objects from the International Spy Museum!

ISM Handbook of Practical Spying - $14.95

You don't have to be on a secret mission to apply tradecraft secrets! It's amazing how CIA and KGB tactics can be employed in our everyday lives – exactly what The International Spy Museum Handbook of Practical Spying teaches readers. Use illustrated step-by-step instructions to make you a less appealing target for crooks or to out-swindle a swindler! Authors also share fascinating details about how the same techniques are used in the shady world of espionage.

Lipstick Pen - $5.50

An ordinary pen concealed as a lipstick in the perfect shade of red.

*Electronic images and samples are available to journalists upon request.

#

For more information, please contact:

Amanda Abrell

International Spy Museum

P] 202.654.2843, F] 202.393.7797

aabrell@splymuseum.org